Autumn 16 key trend: Unstructured elegance

Photographer JAMES MACARI
Styling NICOLA KAVANAGH

Autumn 16 sets an abundance of simply tailored but fearless staples, from Chanel's oversized cardigans to denim jeans-wagon wheels. Pair with statement footwear and jewelry for a modern, fearless look.

Mical Bockru

Bringing a striking beauty and energy to fashion of late, Mical Bockru has got all the right people interested in her. Mical has already achieved the ultimate fashion approval - being photographed by Patrick Demarchelier for L'Espresso magazine - as well as appearing in ID, Interview and twice in American Vogue and will only be her first season. Meanwhile modeling for Alessandro Michele's upcoming Gucci
